

The children of the public schools returned to work after the week's vacation with renewed interest and enthusiasm. The rest seemed to be a needed one. The week has been one of earnest, painstaking work. Nearly all the large schools have been crowded with visitors, so in from out of town and from among the some people.

The news of Mr. Cooper's good fortune of the to his friends here with a two-fold effect. Probably the first feeling was a sense of loss, but doubtless the knowledge of his gain will modify that somewhat, and all will rejoice with him the good wishes of his associates here, and the good will of the community.

Mrs. Elliott was again called to her home in Iowa yesterday, this time by the sad tidings of the death of her mother. The news was not unexpected, as since her recent trip home Mrs. Elliott has had little hope of her mother's recovery.

The teachers in the city schools, among whom she has worked so carnestly, as well as her many friends elsewhere, will sympathize most heartily with Mrs. Ellott in her loss. She left for home yesterday noon.

The committee appointed by the Ladies' Literary club to arrange for the model school rooms, visited the Webster and Jackson schools on Tuesday last with a view to selecting a suitable room. In all probability the lower corridor at the Jackson will be chosen instead of a room, but the Webster site has not yet been determined. The committee, consisting of Mrs. Jennings, Mrs. Critchlow and Mrs. King, has decided to make no attempt at any definite action until the summer vacation, but to have the corridor completed by the opening of the schools in the fall.

County Superintendent Ashton returned Friday from visiting the schools of the county. Mr Ashton visited Butler, Granite, Crescentiand Mill Creek. He reports the schools in better working order now than at any time since the break in the winter on ascount of sickness. Many of the districts are contemplating new school buildings, and a general feeling of prosperity and good fortune exists. Two elegant modern school houses are to be erected in Mill Creek.

Puffs under the eyes; red nose; pimpleblotched, greasy face don't mean hard drinking always as much as it shows that there is BILE IN THE BLOOD. It is true, drinking and over-eating overloads the stomach, but failure to assist nature in regularly disposing of the partially digested lumps of food that are dumped into the bowels and allowed to rot there, is what causes all the trouble. CASCARETS will help nature help you, and will keep the system from filling with poisons, will clean out the sores that tell of the sysstem's rottenness. Bloated by bile the figure becomes unshapely, the breath foul, eyes and skin yellow; in fact the whole body kind of fills up with filth. Every time you neglect to help nature you lay the foundation for just such troubles. CASCARETS will carry the poisons out of the system and will regulate you naturally and easily and without gripe or pain.
